

I have my cell phone on the no call list and I do not want telemarketers to be able to call on it under no circumstances. This phone is a private phone for my use only and no one else, and I feel I have the right to keep it that way. If they allow telemarketers to use it, I will cancel my phone out. I use it solely for emergencies and do not want unwanted calls on it.